

PAePay® Fines, Costs & Restitution (FCR) Payments

➤ What is PAePay Fines, Costs, & Restitution?

PAePay provides the option to submit electronic payments for outstanding fines, costs, and restitution on Common Pleas and Magisterial District Court cases. FCR payments are accepted using MasterCard, Visa, American Express, Discover, and ATM/Debit cards.

*All payments carry an additional $2.75 transaction fee.

➤ Before you make a payment

Internet Browser:

Feel free to use the browser of your choice, but Google Chrome offers the best experience.

No Account Needed:

You do not need to create a UJS Web Portal account to make an FCR payment.

➤ Case payment eligibility

The following cases are not eligible for online payment and cannot be found in any search. In these instances, all payments must be made by mail or in-person at the court office:

- Cases that are sealed, designated as limited access or clean slated, or have otherwise been secured by the court.
- Criminal, Summary, or Summary Appeal cases where the defendant is a minor.
- Juvenile cases where the responsible court has decided not to accept online payment. You must call the court to verify this information.
- All cases that are pending expungement.

➤ Finding the PAePay FCR screen

Hover your mouse pointer over the Pay Online menu and click Fines, Costs, & Restitution.
